Lawyer Robert F. Kennedy Jr., son of Robert F. Kennedy and the nephew of former U.S. president John F. Kennedy, has penned a comprehensive account of Bill Gates' attempt to monopolize and dominate global food production, labelling it "a dark form of philanthro-capitalism based on biopiracy and corporate biopiracy."

Kennedy warns that "To cloak his dystopian plans for humanity in benign intentions, Gates has expropriated the rhetoric of "sustainability," "biodiversity," "good stewardship" and "climate.""

Kennedy continues, "These causes are all grim realities that pose existential threats to our children and require urgent attention. However, Gates' record exposes his benevolent intentions as masquerades for his agenda to maximize personal profit and control."

Writing for his Children's Health Defense group, Kennedy notes that "It's baffling to me how so many of my friends in the environmental movement have swallowed Gates' chicanery."

The article contains a raft of links documenting Gates' "long-term strategy of mastery over agriculture and food production globally".

Throughout the essay, Kennedy notes how Gates has:

- Helped orchestrate and cheerlead lockdowns which have bankrupted more than 100,000 businesses in the U.S. alone and plunged a billion people into poverty and deadly food insecurity, that, among other devastating harms, kill 10,000 African children monthly — while increasing Gates' wealth by \$20 billion.

- Quietly made himself the largest owner of farmland in the United States. Gates' portfolio now comprises about 242,000 acres of American farmland and nearly 27,000 acres of other land across Louisiana, Arkansas, Nebraska, Arizona, Florida, Washington and 18 other states.
- Made hefty investments in GMO crops, seed patents, synthetic foods, artificial intelligence including robotic farm workers, and commanding positions in food behemoths including Coca-Cola, Unilever, Philip Morris (Kraft, General Foods), Kellogg's, Procter & Gamble and Amazon (Whole Foods), and in multinationals like Monsanto and Bayer that market chemical pesticides and petrochemical fertilizers.
- Forced a failed system of GMO, chemical and fossil fuel-based agriculture on poor African farmers, decimating biodiversity and ensuring soils grew more acidic with every application of petrochemical fertilizers. A study found that extreme hunger has increased by 30 percent in the 18 countries that Gates targeted. Rural poverty has metastasized dramatically, and the number of hungry people in these nations has risen to 131 million.

Kennedy notes that just as with Gates' vaccination programs in Africa, "there was neither internal evaluation nor public accountability."

Kennedy also notes that Gates' power grab doesn't end with food production. He has sought to dominate in the areas of public health, privatizing prisons, online education and global communications while promoting digital currencies, high tech surveillance, data harvesting systems and artificial intelligence. The piece is an extraordinary takedown of Gates, who Kennedy charges has "learned to fatten himself on global crises, whether it's pandemics, climate, famine or mass extinction."

In partnering with companies like Monsanto and pushing GMOs, Kennedy charges that Gates is engaging in "Chemical warfare on human health."

The piece also notes how Gates has pushed 'faux' global governmental agencies that he himself created "to push his diabolical chemical, medical and food concoctions," including insect protein.

"Following Gates' lead, GAVI is optimistic that bugs will soon be an important food supplement for impoverished and undernourished children," Kennedy writes.

Kennedy also covers the elite push for a 'great reset' "to impose authoritarian controls, pervasive surveillance, oppressive new economic models and one-world government on a beleaguered, terrified and compliant humanity."

The article is a must read to understand how deeply embedded Bill Gates' tentacles are in the control structures of the globe, and how every policy and program he is pushing is fundamentally anti-human.

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. has been exposing this anti-human, anti-Earth agenda for some time, which is why he is relentlessly attacked and smeared by elite 'think tanks' and globalist organizations.

Calls for Kennedy to be cancelled and erased are sure to increase after this latest important salvo against Gates and his minions.
