

The Start of the Organized Massive Migrant Invasion to Europe

Description

Europe may soon face a new wave of the migration crisis. Since the beginning of the year, the influx has reached a record for all six years – almost 200 000 illegal border crossings of EU countries.

Tens of thousands of illegal immigrants from Africa and the Middle East calling themselves the “Convoy of Light” are approaching the Turkish city of Edirne. And it looks impressive.

The caravan of migrants formed a few weeks ago. Information is that tonight they are preparing to storm the border with Greece, and then move north through the Balkans. The final destination is the countries of Western Europe, mainly Germany.

They say this is just the beginning: in total, up to ten such “convoys” can be formed this fall...EU can thank the USA for this for creating so much conflicts in those regions...EU should soon say “thank you” to the USA for creating the energy crisis in EU...

A crowd of migrants decided to storm the border with Bulgaria from Edirne. The Turkish police are trying to direct the flow precisely at the Greek border.
