

Ukraine in Pursuit of the “Good Citizen”

Description

Sickening... 3 days ago the “Ukrainian people” were awarded the “European Parliament’s 2022 Sakharov [human rights peace] Prize” for their “bravery” and commitment to “democracy and human

The Black Sea midnight is black. Blacker than the hands of Ukrainian mothers who bury their sons by the hundreds every day. Blacker than the nights of wives who cannot sleep, knowing that their husbands will never return. Blacker than the thoughts of those officials who sign death sentences for Ukrainian soldiers, sending them to the front. How can the soldiers of Ukraine not be caught at this midnight? Lay down their arms and raise!
