

Assessment made by Valery Gerasimov, Chief of the General Staff of Russian Armed Forces

Description

Statement from Valery Gerasimov, Chief of the General Staff of the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation at a briefing for foreign military attachés:

??Russian Federation estimates the amount of aid that Ukraine has received from Western countries at $ 100 billion.

??The United States, Britain, Poland and Romania make the most significant contribution to the supply of weapons to Kiev

??The aviation of the Russian Federation demilitarised more than 11 000 units of the AFU during the SMO, drones destroyed more than 600 Ukrainian objects.

??Since the beginning of the special operation, Western countries have supplied Ukraine with more than 350 tanks, 700 artillery systems, 100 multiple launch rocket systems, 30 helicopters, at least 5,000 drones, 1,000 armored fighting vehicles, at least 800 armored vehicles, 5,300 portable anti-aircraft missile systems

??The situation on the front line is stabilized, the main efforts of the troops are focused on completing the operation in the DPR

??Hypersonic missiles "Kinzhal" proved invulnerable to Ukrainian air defense

??Russian missile strikes have paralyzed the work of the Ukrainian military-industrial complex

??The fighting has been fierce from the very beginning of the Special Military Operation

??NATO's actions increase tensions and reduce the level of security on the Russia-NATO relations

??The length of the front in Ukraine is currently 815 km

??The Armed Forces of the Russian Federation in the framework of its strike hit more than 1,300 critical objects of Ukraine, which significantly reduced the combat potential of Ukrainian troops

??Kiev uses civilians as a human shield, blocks the exit of civilians from cities, and tortures prisoners of war.

??Sweden and Finland want to be included in NATO under a far-fetched threat from Russia
