

Russia's Economy in 2022

Description

Main Statements by Russian Deputy Prime Minister Alexander Novak:

??Russian budget revenues from the oil and gas industry grew by 28% in 2022, despite the sanctions imposed by the West

??In 2022, coal production in Russia increased by 0.3%, to 442 million tons

??Russia increased LNG exports in 2022 by 8%, to 46 billion cubic meters.

??Oil exports from Russia in 2022 increased by 7%

??484 billion cubic metres of gas were supplied to the domestic market of the Russian Federation in 2022

??Gas supplies via the Power of Siberia to China in 2022 amounted to 15.5 billion cubic meters

??Electricity production in Russia grew by 0.7% in 2022, consumption by 1.5%

??In the new regions of the Russian Federation, more than 3.5 thousand kilometres of power lines and four power units at stations were restored