Description

Die schwarze Schmach (“the Black Disgrace”) was a German nationalist propaganda term for the African colonial troops deployed by France during its occupation of the Rhineland after 1918. From Wiki: The majority of colonial African soldiers were accused of committing rape and mutilation against the German population. The campaign reached its peak between 1920 and 1923, but did not stop until 1930. Adolf Hitler blamed Jews for bringing the Senegalese into the Rhineland. Children of mixed parentage were known as “Rhineland Bastards”.

The parallels between 1937 Germany and the present USA situation is before all to see. You cannot unsee it. The level of dissatisfaction and abject hatred between the two political dynasties is starting to boil over. And the average American citizen is watching from the censored sidelines. I have come to believe that the only way out of this situation is to allow the pending explosion. Do not fight the fire. Throw hi octane gasoline on the conflagration, stand back and watch. Only then will the hidden perpetrating scum be visible. If the U.S. is to survive as a republic with freedom for all we must excise these demons from our midst. That is the only way forward.

Can't count the number of times I've been in some group of guys who go on and on about football stats, who should have been traded, who is good at what position, scores, upcoming games and so on. Most players these days are black so it's rooting for one's favorite negro. When it comes to something else though they're all clueless and uninterested. Something like the Ukraine situation they know nothing about but act like they're backing one team over another. They can't be bothered to spend a half hour researching the subject before forming an opinion on something but simply parrot what they've heard on television. What can you do with this stupid population? They're just what the elites want, malleable and conformist. People keep doing a geographic, moving around to get away from diversity and other ills of society but everybody is running out of space to run to. If the US collapses it would be a nightmare sci-fi scenario. It could never reconstitute itself seeing as it's not a country but an economic empire. Take away the imperially supported economy and there's nothing left but some disparate people with nothing in common.

I recently represented a man on disability for “his back.” Never mind that he weed eats, crawls under cars and can move a refrigerator. He gets $1200 a month as well as $190 per month in EBT (food stamps.)

I ask tons of questions and discover that his father, his brother, his ex- wife, her mother and a sister in law are ALL on disability. They are all white. They all appear that could bust a log over their leg like a twig. They take drugs, drink, fish, fight, and generally have the Life of Riley. They are not getting up in 20 degree weather and hustling to work. They are sleeping late and watching Magnum PI reruns in their dirty Lazy Boys.

So, making conversation waiting for his case to be called up in court, I said: I can't believe I just paid $6 for a bag of corn chip. His reply? No commiseration or awareness: "I don't look at prices." He doesn't have to acknowledge inflation. He lives in a busted out mobile home that is paid for and so do the other grifters.

Now add millions to that mindset. So here we are, the dumbos who keep working to pay for these leeches. Add in the blacks and the illegals we pay for- and it is demented.

So I ask you: Whose the dummy?

I've been criticizing White men for supporting professional "sports" for more than a few decades. I never watched that garbage...

Not only the "Negro Felon League" and the "Negro Basketball Association" but even that bastion of truly white skills, NASCAR has been infected with "woke" ideology. When (((they))) banned the "Stars and Bars" flag, a part of their history, NASCAR sealed its fate, along with the promotion of substandard affirmative action" negro driver "bubba" wallace complaining about "racist" garage door pulls, NASCAR's fate was set. To add insult to injury, recently "bubba" wallace's violent tendencies were on full display.

Let's not forget the billions spent by White male "sports fans" on negro ball jerseys, caps and other "trinkets", overpriced game tickets and taxpayer-subsidized stadiums (playpens), all to benefit the (((owners))) of the criminal steroid-addled costumed players who are paid millions of dollars to play children's games.

"Bread and circuses" which are provided to "quell the masses" are just as successful now as they were in ancient times...

It is disgusting to see White men spout off useless and meaningless sports statistics and the adulation that they give these costumed players (actors). It is just sickening to see White men debase themselves.

I realize that negro ball is "entertainment for the masses" and do look down derisively on grown White men who sport their favorite negro ball players clothing or other accouterments. I think to myself: "don't you have anything better to do?"

There are much better things for white men to do than watch negro ball sports.

Build something...repair something...study philosophy or technical journals on something that interests you, make something better, improve yourself and your standard of living and devices...use your wisdom and knowledge to get your fellow Whites to THINK for themselves, not what to think, but HOW to think and to not just accept the pabulum, lies and falsehoods of the mainstream media and useless professional sports.

Message to White men: Get away from the negro ball. You are much better than that...

If “we” Whites are truly that dense collectively, then I’m not sure that we’re worth preserving at all. Truth be told, we White people are ultimately responsible for our own demise simply because we DON’T have the innate common sense to defend ourselves or preserve our racial identity. This probably serves as a partial explanation for why imprisoned Whites not only don’t band together to defend themselves from $#!+skinned sexual predators, but also why the White supremacists behind bars don’t do so, either. They are the minority of Whites who are racially conscientious and have come to justifiably despise those Whites who are not.

Putting it more succinctly, if Whites don’t band together and stand up for themselves now, why would anyone think they’ll do so at any point in the future? The reality is that we will all continue to act as “lone wolves” in the face of adversity and will be defeated because of our failure to unite. Embedded programming doesn’t change.
