

What's Going on in Sudan?

Description

The battle in Sudan is between these two men, the 65-year-old Al-Barhan, the coup master who overthrew Omar al-Bashir with a military coup and has been the unofficial but undisputed ruler of Sudan for almost 4 years, and the 46-year-old Mohammad Hamdan Daglu, nicknamed Hamidti, the commander of the The quick reaction and the former deputy of the Transitional Council of Sudan, who considered the coup in Sudan wrong not long ago and is against the normalization of relations with Israel.

Al-Burhan, Head of Sudan's Transitional Governance Council: The situation is under control, the rapid response military should not be a tool of personal ambitions.

Commander Hamidati: The situation in some parts of the capital is under our control and we will not rest until al-Barhan is brought to justice.
